

FREE SAMPLE CURED OLD PERSON'S BOWEL TROUBLE

One of the most remarkable proofs of the unusual laxative merit contained in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is that it is effective not only in people in the prime of life, but at the extremes of ages. As many letters are received from mothers regarding the cures of children, as from men and women of sixty, seventy and eighty years of age. It must be truly a wonderful laxative.

In the cure of constipation and bowel trouble in old people it has no equal. It corrects the constipation, dispels the headache, biliousness, gas, drowsiness after eating, etc. People advancing in years should see to it that their bowels move freely, and if they do not to take Dr. Caldwell's

Syrup Pepsin. You can prolong your life by healthy bowel action. Clogged bowels invite disease. Women about to pass the menstrual period cannot do better than use Syrup Pepsin several times a week until the system has settled to its future condition.

Among the strongest supporters of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are Mr. W. G. Zorn of New Decatur, Ala., and Mr. George S. Spaulding of the National Soldiers' Home, Kansas, both elderly men. The regular size bottles can be bought at fifty cents and one dollar, but a free sample bottle can be had by sending your address to the doctor.

Address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Chicago, Ill.

Lord Lyttleton came over to New York in search of a wife. He brought letters to me, and I put him up at those clubs to which I belonged. I didn't need to introduce him to our set because it was known he was coming, and all the women with marriageable daughters—I mean those who are looking for foreign titles—flooded him with invitations as soon as he arrived.

I had a matrimonial scheme on hand myself. I didn't need money, you know, having a couple of hundred thousand income, but I liked Miss Auchincloss, who had as much more. There are those of us well to do people who don't wish to be bothered making more money. We usually marry among ourselves, so you see it was possible for Miss Auchincloss and me to consider love just like ordinary people. Well, I introduced the Englishman to her, and what did he do but make up to her and offer himself.

The first I knew of it Miss Auchincloss sent for me and told me—mind you, I hadn't proposed to her—that she was intending to accept my lordly friend.

"Love match?" I asked, controlling my surprise.

"Nonsense!" "Title?" "Of course. We all wish to get up in the social scale, and say what you like, a title is always a step higher than no title."

"How about the man you have to take with it?"

"Lyttleton is passable."

"Well?"

"What do you think of it?"

"It'll be a good thing for me. I don't see how a man can put another more under obligations to himself than by introducing him to a girl he hoped to get for his wife and giving her up to him. When I go to London I'll have some one to do a lot for me. Does he know of my pretensions?"

"Not till I told him."

"Well, goodbye. You have accepted him, I suppose."

"Yes, but we're not to be married for a year. I'm to go over and have a look at the castle. He says $100,000 for repairs will be required."

"Well, I wish you joy in your title."

I bade her goodbye, and going to my club, I found Lyttleton.

"Hello, old chap!" he said. "Glad to see you."

"Accept my congratulations upon your engagement."

"She's told you, has she? Well, old fellow, she told me she has turned you down for me. Deuced poor taste, you know. Don't see how she could have done it. By the bye, you couldn't let me have a matter of $1,000 or so for a few weeks? I'm getting remittances of rents from my agents due a month from today."

"Certainly. Two thousand if you like."

"Well, make it two while you're about it."

I wrote him a check for $10,000, and before he left the country I had lent him $10,000 more. This giving up my girl to him and lending him these sums I think was, to say the least, magnanimous. I told him I should be over the water soon after his arrival, whereupon he said perhaps I wouldn't mind waiting payment till I reached there. I told him it wouldn't trouble me at all.

Of course the first thing I did on reaching London was to notify him of my arrival. He came right down to my hotel and shook both my hands heartily.

"There's one thing about it over here," he said, his exuberant welcome sobering down, "our clubs don't allow introducing strangers at all. It's awfully disappointing not to be able to put you up, old chappy, but I can't, you know."

"Oh, it doesn't matter," I said. "I suppose I'll meet some nice people in other ways."

"So you will; so you will. But why didn't you come in the season? Most of my friends are out of town."

"You mean at their country places. Aren't they to be seen there?"

"Certainly, on invitation. But, you know, their guests are all booked for this season. It's awfully awkward, you know."

"I see. Don't feel bad about it."

"I must be going now. I have an appointment with Colonel De Granville, one of the king's equerries. I'll telephone you as to my plans for you."

That was the last I saw or heard of Lyttleton, and as for my loans they are loans yet.

I was about to return to America when I received a note from Miss Auchincloss asking me to come to see her. She was at a hotel, which surprised me.

"Having a pleasant visit?" she asked.

"Fine."

"Seeing lots of the aristocracy?"

"Loads of them."

She broke into a laugh.

"Got the money you loaned Lyttleton?"

"How did you find out about that?"

She laughed again. "A little bird told me."

I sat tapping my foot with my cane.

"It's all off between Lyttleton and me. I never intended to marry him without an investigation. I've made it."

Miss Auchincloss and I went home on the same steamer and when we arrived were engaged.

Men's Inhumanity to Man.

Some men, when they are arrested on a serious charge, are sent to jail. Others, like one in New York, fare much worse. The magistrate told his wife to take him home and tell him what she thought of him.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

No Credit to Him.

"I don't believe he ever deceived anybody but himself." "Well, that's probably because he has found himself so easy."

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because—D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because—It pleases, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—It enables Nature to repair the ravages of the disease.

Because—The records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema cure.
